IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT OPENING NEW ACCOUNTS

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities. Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person opening an account.

What this means for you:

When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. Along with your driver's license we may ask to see other identifying documents.

We thank you for your understanding.
